PRESS RELEASE

Wihlborgs appoints new Regional Director in Malmö

Wihlborgs has appointed Magnus Prochéus as the new Regional Director in Malmö. Magnus has many years of experience from leading management and development roles in the property sector.

Magnus joins Wihlborgs from his role as Commercial Property Director at Stena Property in Malmö and has previously worked in similar roles at Heimstaden and Briggen.

In his role as Regional Director for Wihlborgs in Malmö, Magnus Prochéus will be responsible for a property portfolio of 700,000 m² with a value of SEK 18 billion, and some thirty employees.

"Malmö is our largest market and the regional director role is critical for Wihlborgs. With his solid track record in property management and leadership, Magnus will be able to drive our continued development in Malmö and in the company overall. This combination of experience and commitment to development fits well with Wihlborgs," says Ulrika Hallengren, CEO of Wihlborgs Fastigheter.

"I'm greatly looking forward to my new assignment. With its clear strategy, local presence and genuine commitment among employees, Wihlborgs has established itself as the leading commercial property company in Öresund region. It feels fantastic to become a part of this and to contribute to future success. With a clear focus on customers and the market, my colleagues and I will continue to develop both management and customer relationships. And the icing on the cake is that Wihlborgs is also certified by Great Place to Work," says Magnus Prochéus.

Magnus Prochéus will begin his role as Regional Director on 25 February 2019.
