CEO's comments

Our income from property management in the second quarter marks a new record in Wihlborgs' history, SEK 183 million. Added to the result for the first quarter, SEK 164 million, this represents an aggregate income of SEK 347 million from property management.

The rental market is showing some signs of slowing down. However, given our strong position in the market and closeness to our customers, we can report a net letting of SEK 8 million in the quarter and SEK 23 million for the half-year. Of course, the quality of our buildings is also a major factor. We signed new leases with annual rent totalling SEK 98 million (106), while terminations closed the period at SEK 75 million (47).

The business is continuing to expand, due to the fact that we are growing our income by more than our costs. Our rental income for the first quarter is now up to SEK 753 million (727), and by maintaining pressure on costs our operating surplus ended the period at SEK 550 million (525), an increase of 5 per cent. The surplus ratio for the half-year was 73 per cent (72). The occupancy rate increased from 92 per cent at year-end to 93 per cent at mid-year.

The interest rate market was very unsettled during the quarter, with considerable volatility. We exploited this situation in early June by signing two new 10-year swap agreements for a total of SEK 1 billion at an interest rate of 2.035 per cent. In conjunction with existing 10-year swaps, this means that our average interest rate on SEK 3 billion over 10 years now amounts to 2.48 per cent, excluding the bank's margin. We have also concluded negotiations with our banks on margins for the year.

The overall effect of all this is that we are paying an average interest rate of 3.59 per cent over a fixed-interest period of 83 months. With this we are competitive with the other property companies on the stock market.

Our loan debt totals SEK 10.8 billion and derivative agreements SEK 9 billion. As a result, total financial expense in 2012, at the current level of market interest rates, remains at a more or less unchanged level.

Net financial items ended the half-year at SEKm -185 million (-172). The overall effect is that our income from property management continues to increase, and now totals SEK 347 million (335).

In the wake of lower market interest rates, the deficit value on our derivative portfolio increased from SEK 230 million on 31 March to SEK 314 million at mid-year. This resulted in a negative change of SEK 84 million in value for the quarter, but a positive change in value is reported for the half-year, amounting to SEK 107 million.

Wihlborgs' tax position is not affected by the ruling of the Supreme Administrative Court as to how profits are to be allocated on the sale of properties owned by partnerships.

If I am to summarise our performance in the quarter, I would say that the business is progressing as normal. Our income from property management is increasing, we are hitting our financial targets and are looking forward to the remaining of 2012 with confidence.

Market comments

Sweden is doing well in comparison to the eurozone, where the debt crisis has worsened and the economy is on the way down. In the first quarter, growth in Sweden was stronger than anticipated. This was attributable to the rising optimism observed at the time in the financial markets. The Swedish National Institute of Economic Research's Economic Tendency Indicator, which polls mood and expectations among businesses and households, hovered at around 100 during the second quarter, suggesting that the mood in the economy is normal. In June, the indicator slipped to 98.7, in which a decline on the business side was mainly attributable to trends in the manufacturing industry and the building and construction sector. Overall, industrial production is expected to rise slightly over the next few months, while builders anticipate that construction basically will remain unchanged.

Demand in private service enterprises has increased slightly and service companies expect demand to rise over the next few months. Employment, however, is expected to remain more or less unchanged.

As a result of a cross-party agreement, Denmark is cutting taxes to boost growth and help bring about a faster recovery. Tax on labour is to be reduced by DKK 14 billion until 2022, partly by doubling the basic allowance for those in work. In addition, the agreement raises the threshold for Denmark's defence levy, reducing marginal tax by 14 percentage points for 275,000 Danes. In the long term, the reform is expected to create 15,800 new jobs.

The strong growth we have observed in Skåne, southern Sweden, in recent years has been reflected in the rental market. According to Øresundsstatistik's June forecast, the employment has weakened and is expected to average zero for the year. This is evident in somewhat lower demand and the fact that the leasing processes are tending to become slightly more prolonged than normal. It is estimated that positive employment growth will return as early as next year.

The occupancy rate for managed properties was 93 per cent, an increase by 1 per cent since the year-end.

During the period new rental agreements were signed on a full-year basis totalling SEK 98 million (106).
